Vice Mayor Murphy spoke with Attorney Lauri Sigler, who stated the legal work for DeDe Hensley's boundary line adjustment is complete, only the survey remains. The price of the survey was to be paid for in thirds; Welcher 1/3, DeDe 1/3, and the Town 1/3. When the survey is finished, the request will go to the County, where, if there is no opposition, the line will be redrawn. Council's consensus was to go forward and not wait for annexation. Council did preliminary work on the budget.
